

POETRY

DIPPING CANDLES IN VER
Daniel F. Cady in Burlington Press.
A-dipping candles used to be a sight that soothed your eyes to rest. It ain't like pouring tallow down a metal throat you buy in the store, but like tucking a candle in and casting sugar cakes of gold. It's wicking, tallow, wit and combined in one artistic fact. And so, it's right enough to a man. Is this a squire's or lady's taste and echo answers sharp and true. "The female form is needed to

s. right enough
squire's or lady answers sharp

A soft-compacted wicking ball
Is needed first of all;
And this you see Fidella finds
And take enough of, not too m
And then she hums a little son
And the light is made
And then she knots it round he Just thick enough, but not too
Meanwhile, as probably as not
The talow's been a-getting br
And the light is made Amongst the backroom tubs an
For substance solidity
The wick is pulled to equals pl
That's why you have to "se hour"
Or get inferior candle power.

as her hickory

Then, stick in hand, three s four
She takes and opens the outside
Whereat all kinds of Northwe
The little fellow's forms enfol
With much effect the tallow d
Hush up their staccatlike tear
Then back she goes and star
To quench the little candle me
At last inside her box they ge
The pretty candles, "snow on Each tallow man ten inches
And candle with art, baird, wi
Modella's handiwork, indeed,
It's all the blessing that the
Her grandchild, Gladys, let m Can turn no tastier trick to handiwork, and the blessing that child. Gladys.

Moralist—Are you laying so away for a rainy day?
Old Soak—Not on your life!
I can do these days to last thing aside for a dry day, I meddle.

Hi Hayrick—I seen Si Mella him for a doctor yesterday.
Jeh Ho—He's a doctor, but he dermed mean to run fer a doc-anybody but himself.—Boston

"Do you realize the enormi-charge against you," asked the "No," replied the prisoner.
haven't got my lawyer's bill
I expect the charge to be en-
Stray Stories

Friend—Halle, Scribbles; I your manuscript's are selling the charge to ories.

Transcript.

"Does your wife go in for a lift stuff?"

"Alas, no—she goes out for a lift stuff. She is attending a meeting somewhere in the week."

Times-Union.

Young Mistress—Your master has cooked quite to boil our drinking. Tell her to start today.

Young Mistress—And tell her sure not to burn it—London.

From his wonderful store of knowledge he had explained to the young thing the mysteries of fishing.

"How interesting," she said. "And what kind of bait do you use?"

interesting." 8

Mrs. Brown—And what did
 Mr. Brown—I asked him was running for. "Til Bits.
 She—What is the correct
 of the motto of that level
 save me?
 He—Faithful to the last.
 The last. How horriyou've always told me before was the very first!—Minneapolis.
 bune.
 Did you try the simple counting sheep for your insomnia?
 "Yes, Doctor, but I made a
 It. I counted sheep, put 'em train and shipped 'em to market when I'd got through counting money I got for them at Pres-it was time to get up.—F HOME.

THE LOMEDOSCO

King Alexander has gone alone to visit those who have in the great fire.

Official Decrees requisition maize and rice crops have been in the Lomadosco.

Twelve classes of Greek and rice crops have

One hundred and twenty Italian soldiers of the sentry from 1874 to 1881, are to be taken from the purges of an intended cultural campaign.

Statistics show that in A. 1914 there were 11,528 deaths from tuberculosis, against 5,600 in 1913, for the war deaths from this cause were steadily increasing.

The whole of the Middle since the Revolution as police trograd have demanded an of pay. Their demands being they have resigned in a body.

Ex-King Constantine is so far from the city, he is in a furnished villa on the D. His suite will be quartered for the winter, and had villa on the

derived from one litre (13 1/2 % of a litre, except for babies) is no longer to be sold as medicinal orders.

No Serbian teacher or professor was allowed to teach in Serbian situations in the newly opened areas, as exemplified by Austro-Hungarian subjects, Serbian nationals, prohibited, and the teaching in German and Magyar languages compulsory.

to teach in S s in the newly good, purpose. Will make and occupied by Austro-Hungarian subjects, Serbian manuals, prohibited, and the teaching German and Magyar language compulsory.

He Escaped Influenza

"Last spring I had a terrible cold. I was afraid I had contracted influenza," writes A. N. Sorens, High Point, Ga. "I took a kind of medicine but remained with cold. I then took honey and Tar Compound, and in a few days I used several bottles. It was like a plague. I coughed up all the

and whooping cough.

WHITESTONE CIGARS
Are $43.00 Per Thousand
J. E. CONANT 11.5

1